Key: Model of the relationships between psychological, social and physical factors in the burden of HIV, demonstrating contribution to ‘total pain’. Arrows represent hypothesised direction of effect, based on study findings; sociocultural factors (stigma and poverty) are presented in darker shades.