Figure 1. Antioxidant potential of Nigella sativa fixed and essential oils. (A) represents glutathione contents and (B) and (C) show the α- and γ- tocopherol contents. The antioxidant potential increased with the supplementation of fixed and essential oils. The essential oil increased glutathione contents, whilst fixed oil increased significantly tocopherol content.