“I use the techniques taught by TS at the dental emergencies workshop often and effectively and have taught others to do dental blocks. I work in a very remote location and have had patients cry with relief and hug me because they are so grateful.

I have also developed a very good working relationship with the dentist here and feel that she appreciates that I understand more about teeth and dental problems/trauma than most doctors and that this facilitates more effective referrals to the Dentist.”