positive example of other physicians practice-based education subjects with emphasis on psycho-social aspects of care constructive communication and collaboration physicians’ self-awareness awareness of and attention to patients negative example of other physicians stress

work place organisation and structures focus on scientific abstractions positive influence

physician empathy

negative influence