increasing students' responsibility decreasing supervisors' feedback/support

- decreased feeling of being judged
- medical gaps/missing practical information

- appreciation of critical feedback
- reflective thinking
  - anxious to harm the patient repeated practice

changed perceptions of unsafe learning environment