Pre-assigned readings were aligned with the objectives of each session.

Amount of pre-assigned reading was manageable.

Content of pre-assigned readings was adequate for the class work.

Team activities provided problem solving opportunities.

Team activities made me more comfortable solving problems as a group.

Team activities helped solidify knowledge learned in the readings and quizzes.

Course fostered enthusiasm for the subject matter.

TBL was more stimulating than a lecture course.

TBL was an effective way to learn how to care for patients with HIV.

Strongly Agree

Agree

Neutral

Disagree

Strongly Disagree