“Among medical interventions for the patient described above, which of the following medical interventions would you placed as life-sustaining treatment?”

Attachment of a respirator when the patient described above has severe pneumonia, and separation from the respirator is foreseen to take at least 7 days.