Question: “From the list below, what are the top three things that would increase your confidence that your information was being used responsibly for health research?”

- Fines and penalties if rules are broken
- Can say “No” to certain types of research
- Can check who has used your health information
- Use safeguard, like passwords
- Have a provincial Privacy Commissioner
- Staff training in confidentiality
- Privacy Officer to act on individual’s concerns
- REB reviews all research
- Proposal is reviewed by a group of people who may be affected

Percentages of Times Counted in Top 3 Choice