330 eligible patients attended AMS in the recruitment period

→

296 eligible patients invited to participate in the study

→

210 patients consented to participate: consent rate = 71%

→

41 participants called in to their appointment before beginning or completing the survey

→

168 participants completed the survey before their appointment

→

1 participant quit

→

6 participants completed at least 75% of the survey and were included in the results

→

14 participants completed the survey after their appointment

→

188 participants completed the health risk survey

17 patients not approached due to RA being busy

→

17 patients too sick to participate

→

66 patients did not consent to participate