Nursing care environment: legislation, regulation, professional systems, social and economic issues, culture, educational systems

Nursing care system

Acquiring, deploying and maintaining resources

Transforming resources into services

Producing changes in patients' conditions

Other organizational systems