Figure 1: Number of new prescribing errors per 10 order lines by $i^{th}$ day of stay

Histogram represents the observed data i.e., the mean number of new prescribing errors per 10 order lines. The fitted curve with 95% confidence intervals represents the estimation of the mean number of new prescribing errors per 10 order lines at $i^{th}$ day derived from the mixed Poisson regression model.