Characteristics of work environments: type of hospital, geographic location, organizational culture, volume of services, resources allocated to the teams

Team structure and processes

Structure
- Composition of the team/meetings
  - Presence of a central core of professionals, a nurse navigator, a clinico-administrative manager
  - Frequency of meetings
- Presence of a central core of professionals, a nurse navigator, a clinico-administrative manager
- Frequency of meetings

Process
- Shared care philosophy
- Intra-team coordination mechanisms and tools
- Leadership
- Quality assessment activities

Characteristics of cancer patients: sociodemographic and clinical

Characteristics of professionals: sociodemographic and professional

Interdisciplinary team effects on:

Patients
- Use of cancer-related services
- Service needs met or unmet
- Perception of care and service quality

Professionals
- Team effectiveness
- Job satisfaction
- Perceived well-being

INTENSITY OF INTERDISCIPLINARITY
(weak to high)