a Restricted to commissioners and managers responding from the same PCT (n=23 for each survey)

b Routine & Manual (R&M) smokers are defined by their occupation. R&M occupations include such roles as lower supervisory and technical or routine and semi-routine occupations. As such they account for almost 50% of smokers in England. [25]