High quality cost-effectiveness evidence and service user views

Policy & NFPO recommendations

Health & psychosocial needs of children & young people

Clinical guidelines

Knowledge translation framework

Appropriate proximal and distal outcome measures

Timely and efficient assessment and supply with embedded psychosocial support and wheelchair and life skills training

Develop outcome measures

Address environmental barriers

Continuing service development – collaboration between third party, national health service, private services and service users

Cost-effective wheelchair intervention

Facilitation of improved lifestyle and social participation

Health outcomes

Psychosocial outcomes

Address health needs

Streamline service pathway / develop cost-saving procurement strategies

Cost-effectiveness analysis

Key:

Framework stages

Required actions

Development stages

Overarching context

Area for development

Direction of progression

Interaction