A: Number of Individuals

- Improve population health by moving people in sicker groups upwards into healthier groups over time.

B: Total System Cost

- Lower costs by more cost-effective procedures in one group.
- Improve experience of care by proactively identifying sickest people, and getting proactive preventive care to them before ED and hospitalization.

C: Mean Cost per Individual

- Lower costs by moving curve left.