These perceptions influence physicians’ actions during four primal steps of adherence communication:

1: Deciding to ask about adherence 2: Pre-questioning preparations
3: Phrasing the question
4: Responding to patients’ answer

Physicians’ perceptions about:

a) Degree and importance of adherence
b) Awkwardness of discussing adherence with patients
c) Believability of patient statements on adherence