Figure 1. Generalized structure of the actor network for safety promotion, observed at the time of the study. The global network was divided into sub-networks with conflicting goals and agendas. The quasi-market for public service contracts led to a situation where the organizational support for safety promotion activities from local agencies was fragmentary and inconsistent. Legislation (the Civil Protection Act and the Personal Integrity Act) is shown by dotted lines.