Positive expectations vs Uncertainty

- Positive expectations: Higher values indicate more positive expectations.
- Uncertainty: Lower values indicate less uncertainty.

The diagram shows four quadrants representing different combinations of positive expectations and uncertainty.