The graph shows the number of cfu of S. aureus/g of spleen for different treatments:

- PBS: The highest value, close to $5 \times 10^7$.
- L. lactis: Slightly lower than PBS, around $4 \times 10^7$.
- pSEC:rSEB and pCYT:rSEB: Significantly lower, both close to $1 \times 10^7$.

Significance levels are indicated with ***.