Figure 5. Results of Von-kossa staining. These photos were captured with predetermined light intensity under magnification of 10 (A-E) and 20(a-e). Photos from A (or a) to E (or e) represented the control group, group 1000 με loading for 14 days, group 2000 με for 14 days, group 1000 με for 21 days and group 2000 με for 21 days, respectively. The fresh osteoid have also been specially marked with arrow.