This figure shows the contributions (in percent) of potential determinants of mental health, entered into Logistic model, to measured socioeconomic inequality in mental health. These contributions are the results of the decomposition of mental health concentration index.

Figure 2