A coffee is a coffee, is a coffee, is a coffee...

Cardiologists have to be aware that due to the pro-technology bias of modern medicine, we, as physicians, are encouraged to trust, to use (and to buy) technologies far before their clinical incremental value has been shown.