*Power can be defined as the probability of finding a real difference if it exists. 80% or 0.8 is considered an acceptable value for power. The Power Analysis is performed independently for each spot.