Figure 1: Relationship between the number of ophthalmologists per 100,000 inhabitants and the OR (adjusted on age and socio-professional categories) for low vision per region. Reference: “Ile de France”. Dotted line: linear regression. Region ORs that differed significantly from 1 are underlined. An OR greater than 1 means less risk of developing low vision. PACA: Provence-Alpes-Côtes d’Azur.