Brod, M. Understanding and Assessing the Impact of Treatment in Diabetes: TRIM-Diabetes and TRIM-Diabetes Device

- Store your medication
- Prepare your medication for use
- Take your medication at the right time
- Carry your medication and supplies around with you
- The ease and convenience of your medication
- Monitor your blood sugar as often as necessary

- Social activities
- Do you have to limit your daily activities
- Do you accomplish less than you would like to
- Meal time planning
- Do you feel tension in your relationships with friends or family

- Help you prevent feeling tired or a lack of energy
- Help you avoid high blood sugar (hyperglycemia)
- Help you manage your weight
- Help you control your diabetes
- Help you avoid low blood sugar (hypoglycemia)

- Delay or postpone taking your medication
- Miss a dose
- Take your medication at a different time than prescribed
- Worry you forgot to take/or missed your last dose of medication

- Worried about side effects from my medication
- Nervous or anxious
- Angry
- Depressed
- Unhealthy
- Worried about my blood sugar control
- Worried that medication is not helping to slow down or prevent complications from my diabetes
- Feel embarrassed or awkward when taking your medication

- That you are using the device properly
- Keep your device functioning properly
- Ease-learn how to use your device
- That your device delivers the correct, full dose of medication
- Adjust your medication for small dose changes

- Physical discomfort related to using your device
- Using your device in public
- Bothered-size of your device

- TRIM-Diabetes
- TRIM-Diabetes Device

- Treatment Burden
- Daily Life
- Diabetes Management
- Compliance
- Psychological Health
- Device Function
- Device Bother