[Graph showing the repletion of liver mass after partial hepatectomy with different treatments. The x-axis represents hours (24 and 72) after partial hepatectomy, and the y-axis shows the repleted liver mass percentage. The treatments are labeled as Con, L-Gln(+), L-Arg(+), and L-Ala. The graph indicates a significant increase in liver mass with L-Ala treatment compared to the control and other treatments.]