Fig. 3 HE staining of metastatic hepatic carcinoma. The tumors are composed of small-sized regular cells which are arranged in broad sheets, nests, and cords. Many of the cells contain cribriform nuclei with a fine reticular chromatin pattern and small amounts of cytoplasm.