Figure 6

Panel A: Scatter plot showing the relationship between collagen percentage and parity (number of births). The line indicates a trend of decrease in collagen with increasing parity.

Panel B: Scatter plot showing the relationship between normalized stiffness (N mm·N·mg⁻¹) and parity (number of births). The line indicates a trend of increase in normalized stiffness with increasing parity.