Locally determined pharmacy education:
- Geared towards needs
- Oriented towards services relevant to needs
- Matched to required competences
- Linked to human resource plans

Action Plan - education and competences:
- Develop vision, frameworks, guidelines, case studies and platform
- Build evidence and advocacy
- Accelerate country action

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Quality assurance</th>
<th>Academic &amp; institution capacity</th>
<th>Vision for pharmacy education</th>
<th>Competence framework</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Finalise and endorse quality assurance framework.</td>
<td>Gather data on academic workforce and institution infrastructure.</td>
<td>Establish a global sharing platform for dialogue.</td>
<td>Gather and review competence frameworks.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3rd Global pharmacy education consultation: country case studies
- Examine accreditation and quality assurance models and systems in country case studies. Test quality assurance framework.
- Codify data on academic workforce and institution infrastructure in country case studies.
- Gather data in country studies on education delivery (cross-border, e-learning, work-based), teaching and assessment strategies.
- Define competences. Examine the curricular outcomes relevant in preparing pharmacists in country case studies.

4th Global pharmacy education consultation: guidance
- Provide guidance for quality assurance system development.
- Review strategies for capacity development at national level. Form recommendations for academic workforce institution capacity development.
- Identify elements of a vision. Develop roadmap for education development. Form a vision for pharmacy education.
- Develop a broad competence framework that encompasses full scope and all levels of potential pharmaceutical service.

5th Global pharmacy education consultation: consensus
- Publish country case studies and guidance.
- Publish report and guidance for capacity building.
- Build consensus on vision. Publish education development roadmap.
- Publish competence framework and guidance for education planning.