The chart illustrates the number of articles published from 2005 to 2012, categorized by the nationality of the first author. The bars are split into two colors: blue for First Author Foreign and gray for First Author Indian. The trend shows an increasing number of articles each year, with a significant jump in 2012 in both categories.