Figure 2: Social Ecological Framework

Figure 2 Legend: Social ecological framework describing the leader, participant, and community characteristics examined in this study, and how they may be related to implementation (leaders) and adherence (participants). [See companion manuscript for participant details.] The community-level characteristics also help to describe the larger contextual landscape of the dissemination environment.