The parents of three children who had no accelerometer data had reported their child as only being stationary on one of the monitored days and so these children were not included in summary data of the children’s physical activity.

1The parents of three children who had no accelerometer data had reported their child as only being stationary on one of the monitored days and so these children were not included in summary data of the children’s physical activity.

2n=104 – 9 exclusions of children with questionable reporting of physical activity on Pre-PAQ-1