Figure 3 (A and B): No significant correlation was present between neopterin levels (A) or kyn/trp ratio (B) and disease progression at any of the examined time points. Disease progression consisted of more than 1 point for EDSS between 0 and 5.5 and more than 0.5 point for EDSS ≥5.5 during the treatment period (TP); DP: disease progression.