Figure 8
Average surface roughness of pipette tip ($S_a$) versus tip diameter ($D_t$). $S_a$ is strongly dependent on $D_t$ and has a direct correlation with it. A first degree polynomial equation fitted to data suggests that $S_a$ can be estimated knowing the tip diameter of a given pipette with good approximation.