Localization with MDS and Statistical Peak Selection

- Actual Location
- Estimated Location

Fig. 13. Localization using our statistical peak selection method. The circles represent the true positions, while the squares represent the position estimates. The minimum localization error is 0.40 m, the maximum is 3.36 m, the average is 2.10 m, and the standard deviation is 0.92 m.