The graph compares the False Positive Rate (%) against the number of selfish nodes for two methods: SCF and RTBD. As the number of selfish nodes increases, the False Positive Rate decreases for both methods. SCF consistently has a lower False Positive Rate than RTBD for all numbers of selfish nodes tested.