Figure 7: Data processing at the surface. The raw signal is filtered, managed and decoded in the surface computer. A graphical and numerical view of the raw, filtered and decoded data can be provided.