$P = 0.04$

The graph shows the distribution of FGF21 (pg/mL) for boys and girls. The distributions are indicated by the density of points, with a clearer separation between boys and girls, suggesting a statistically significant difference. The horizontal line represents the mean for each group, with boys showing a lower mean than girls.