Figure 2.

- X-linked genetic
- Hormonal factors
- Sex-imbalanced exposures

More severe disease course ↔ Higher prevalence

Men and women treated differently

Men and women respond differently to same treatment

Men and women differ in subjective experience of the disease

Measurements of disease are not sex-neutral