The graph shows the number of positive cases over the months of August to December. The data is divided into three categories:

- Positives: Represented by a line with a cross symbol.
- IgM: Represented by a line with a dot symbol.
- IgM+IgG: Represented by a line with a square symbol.

The peak of positive cases occurs in November, with a significant drop in December.