Incorporation of membrane-bound, mammalian-derived immunomodulatory proteins into influenza whole virus vaccines boosts immunogenicity and protection against lethal challenge.

Herbert, A. S., Heffron, L., Sundick, R., Roberts, P.C.