MAIN ASPECTS
History of vascular disease

Late onset of depression
- after age 65 years or
- exacerbated after the onset of the vascular damage

SECONDARY ASPECTS
Cognitive impairment*

Limited depressive ideation

Poor insight

Disability/psychomotor retardation

No family history of depression

*Primarily (but not exclusively) affecting executive functions such as planning, organization, and abstract thinking (may be mild at onset)