Figure C. Summary of the genes inverted at each step in the PGD scenario shown in Figure B. The steps consist of a series of inversions, centered on gene 12, that successively invert larger and larger regions of DNA but never spill into the neighboring region (e.g. the region to the left of gene 1).