Fig1 Normal breast tissue, HIF-2a positive (IHC, SP ×200). The HIF-2a staining is weak, and mainly localized mainly in the nucleus of the glandular epithelium cells and vascular endothelium of the breast.