You Can Help Prevent 75% of Diabetes Deaths
Cut the risk of heart attack and stroke for your diabetic patients

Lower BP all the way down to 130/80.
You may need two or three drugs. One should be an ACE Inhibitor†

†See reverse side

Treat cholesterol even if it's normal
Give a STATIN to all diabetic patients over 50 years of age*

*See reverse side

ICES Institute for Clinical Evaluative Sciences

Back

† Additional benefit of lowering blood pressure, with agents like ACE inhibitors, includes protection of renal function.

Adverse reactions to ACE inhibitor use may include: angioedema, cough and elevated creatinine/potassium.

‡ Adverse reactions to statin use may include:

myalgias, myositis and rhabdomyolysis.
Avert concomitant use of statins with macrolides, some antifungals, niacin, fibrates and grapefruit juice.