Seven Primary care organisations identified via VicReN§ and all managers or principal GPs telephoned to explain study

Letter and brochure sent to:
Two Urban privately owned organisations
One Urban publicly funded community health centre
One Urban corporate owned health centre
Two Outer Urban privately owned organisations
One Regional privately owned organisation

Study presentation to seven organisations

Six Primary care organisations recruited

Two Urban privately owned organisations
One Urban publicly funded community health centre
One Urban corporate owned health centre
One Outer urban privately owned organisation
One Regional privately owned organisation

§ VicReN is the Victorian Primary Care Practice-Based Research Network comprising lead researchers and practitioners to encourage the conduct of evidence-based primary care practice in Victoria, Australia.