VA Medical Centers are at the ‘hubs’ of the three circles or wheels above. Each circle is comprised of smaller circles representing individual VA outpatient clinics, and within each clinic, each purple node in the circle of nodes (see enlarged inset on right) represents a physician ‘type’ such as primary care, general surgery, or cardiology within each clinic location.