Accessing the document (accessible)

1. Accessing the document (accessible)
2. Having a positive first impression (usable, desirable, credible)
3. Finding and understanding the information in the document (usable, findable)
4. Trusting the information (desirable, credible)
5. Communicating the information to the patient (useful)
6. Seeking the patient’s values (useful)
7. Sharing the decision with the patient (useful, valuable)
8. Transmitting the document to one’s peers (desirable, credible, valuable)

Using the information in practice