The graph shows the local control rate over time (in months) for patients with chemotherapy (pink line) and without chemotherapy (green dotted line). The p-value for the difference in local control rates is 0.567. The data points indicate a slight difference in control rates between the two groups, but the statistical analysis suggests no significant difference.