Fraction of True Positives by rate of evolution

The diagram shows the fraction of true positives for different rates of evolution. The x-axis represents various categories such as MDAR, RCW, MDAR vs Tree, etc. The y-axis represents the fraction of true positives ranging from 0.00 to 0.80. The categories are differentiated by color coding: very slow, slow, quick, and very quick.